

My family and I are very concerned about the most recent manifestation of the media consolidation: Sinclair posing as a news network and instead pandering to the ruling party. I grew up in the Soviet Union and the memories of a one-party country are still very fresh in my mind. I came to the United States seeking freedom and hope, and what have I found? A rapidly deteriorating pluralism of opinions. If things keep going the way they have been going in the past four years, we won't be able to distinguish ourselves from the totalitarian regimes very soon.

Please stop Sinclair from airing a piece of Republican smear propaganda and protect the airwaves from the domination of the ruling party.
